ABOUT THE CAMP

Entering its eleventh year, the Commonwealth Lacrosse Camp provides high school aged boys both advanced, individualized instruction and competitive game play. Enrollment is open to both individuals and members of attending teams.

Whereas most "camps" focus almost exclusively on game play, the Commonwealth Lacrosse Camp is committed to providing elite instruction from experienced and accomplished adult coaches.

A typical camp day consists of three sessions. Mornings are largely reserved for individual development by position, afternoons are for the teaching of team concepts, and evenings are filled with competition.

A very low counselor to camper ratio is maintained so as to ensure that each camper receives personalized instruction. By the conclusion of camp, each camper will see improvement in his own game and have a better understanding of the sport of lacrosse.

Finally, the Commonwealth Lacrosse Camp is one of the best camp values around. In addition to having access to first-class facilities, campers receive more sessions of instruction at a lower cost than at similar camps. Simply put, the Commonwealth Lacrosse Camp has established itself as one of the best teaching camps in the country for high school aged boys.

CAMP STAFF

CAMP DIRECTOR Chris Swanenburg

Coach Swanenburg has taught countless college, high school and youth players for over two decades. A 1990 graduate of Yale University, Swanenburg coached collegiately for 20 years, helping start two Division III programs and serving as the head coach at Division I Radford University. He has led teams to the NCAA Division I tournament as both a player and coach and is recognized as one of the top teachers in the sport.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR Tony LePore

Coach LePore serves as the Head Assistant Coach at Division II Belmont Abbey College. Prior to joining the Crusaders, he coached at Marymount University and was the head coach at Northern Virginia Community College. LePore played collegiately at the Citadel and SUNY Geneseo.

COACHING STAFF

Assisting the camp directors are accomplished, adult coaches. Many have two or more decades of coaching experience as both college and high school coaches. Their maturity and knowledge help campers learn what it takes to succeed both in high school and at the college level.
